

NOW HIRING CHANGE MAKERS

BRING YOUR BIG IDEAS, BOLD VISION AND FEARLESS LEADERSHIP TO THIS FULL-TIME POSITION WITH THE NATIONAL RESOURCE CENTER ON DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

POSITION: DIRECTOR OF POLICY

The Director of Policy provides bold and expert leadership to the development and implementation of NRCDDV's policy and research agenda to support systems advocacy efforts on behalf of all domestic violence survivors and their families while centering the voices of those from marginalized communities. Overall, the Director of Policy provides vision and expertise to NRCDDV public policy and research efforts, which focus on the intersections of domestic violence and family policy, poverty, public benefits, housing and economic issues.

If you can bring a strong intersectional analysis into the work, foster multiple strategies to enhance and develop relationships with key constituents, lead authentic conversations and be a catalyst for effective policy change that interrupts the root causes of gender violence...we want you on our team.

We are searching for someone invested in...

- standing with individuals and groups affected by multiple systems of oppression;
- celebrating diversity and the vitality and strength it brings to our work, communities and society;
- embracing self-care and community connection as necessary.

If your personal values and approach to change is aligned with NRCDDV's mission, core values, Empowerment Principles and WE STAND statement...WE WANT YOU ON OUR TEAM.

NRCDDV is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

People of color, women, LGBTQ candidates, and people of diverse backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply. We are committed to a diverse workplace and supporting our staff with ongoing career development opportunities and life balance.

Salary range for this position is $85,000-95,000/year, along with a robust benefits package including comprehensive healthcare insurance, retirement plan, vacation & personal time. This position is based in our DC office.
